Code of Conduct and Program Expectations of All Participants:

The philosophy of the Deep River Parks and Recreation Department is to offer programs to the community that enrich, teach and educate while offering a fun opportunity for all. All participants to Parks and Recreation programs including parents and spectators are required to conduct themselves in a responsible and supportive manner. Deep River Parks and Recreation has been granted permission to utilize school facilities and the Deep River Town Hall Auditorium for our programs. It is the responsibility of all participants and their guests to adhere to this policy while being respectful of the school facilities and their specific rules and policies.

The purpose of the Code of Conduct document for parents and youth participants is to encourage fair and equitable behavior so that all participants may experience a safe and supportive environment while participating in the Town of Deep River Recreational Programs. Participants must obey all town, state and Regional School District 4 laws and policies pertaining to disruptive behavior, alcohol use, illegal drug use and the use of tobacco. Participants must refrain: from the use of profane, insulting, harassing or otherwise offensive language at ALL times; Treat everyone fairly within the context of the activity regardless of race, color, ancestry, place of origin, political beliefs religion, physical or mental disability, gender, sexual orientation or age; Respect the dignity and worth of the volunteers and program staff. In the theater program, all participants are to attend all rehearsals required of their part, be respectful of others and learn their lines and roles as required. Participant must be on time for rehearsals and notify the Director if he/she will be absent.

Infractions of this Code shall be first brought to the attention of the program's Director or Parks and Recreation committee chairperson for consideration and appropriate action, in written form, except in unusual circumstances in which an oral report is clearly more appropriate. If the person(s) filing an allegation of a violation is not satisfied with the response given by the Director or the committee chairperson, they may then present their complaint to the Deep River Parks & Recreation Director. I have read and fully understand the Code of Conduct and program Expectations.
